It's 2019 in Clinton, ON. Newly retired and ready for adventure, Gord and Orillia have been Elvis fans since they were teenagers. In twenty-five years, they've never missed their annual pilgrimage to the Collingwood Elvis Festival. Having sold their business, they're now ready to embrace nothing but Presley and the CPP. But when they can't find their daughter, and their only grandchild arrives on the doorstep, everyone's future plans are upended in ways no one dreamed.

A love-me-tender family drama about the King and kincare.

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

Seer? Swindler? Sorcerer? The true story of the last woman in Canada to be convicted of witchcraft...and who just so happened to have been born in Blyth! Arrested on her home farm just outside of town, held in the historic Gaol near Lake Huron, and tried in Goderich court, her case went all the way to the Supreme Court of Ontario.
