Resort to Murder

Date and Time: Saturday, August 3 2:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

A laugh-a-minute murder mystery. When Brett and Viv inherit an old family mansion on Lake Huron, they dream of starting a country resort, but the couple have very different visions of what a tourist destination should be. For Viv: a spa, and quiet retreat. For Brett: a murder mystery themed escape room...obviously. Just a few nights before they welcome their first guests, Brett and Viv gather their reluctant staff in the attic for a trial run. When a sudden storm rolls in off the lake, the lights go out, and the doors lock, their light-hearted game suddenly turns into an electrifying night of murderous confessions, twists and turns that will leave you breathless. Enjoy your stay!

Saving Graceland

Date and Time: Saturday, August 3 8:00 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

It's 2019 in Clinton, ON. Newly retired and ready for adventure, Gord and Orillia have been Elvis fans since they were teenagers. In twenty-five years, they've never missed their annual pilgrimage to the Collingwood Elvis Festival. Having sold their business, they're now ready to embrace nothing but Presley and the CPP. But when they can't find their daughter, and their only grandchild arrives on the doorstep, everyone's future plans are upended in ways no one dreamed.

A love-me-tender family drama about the King and kincare.

The Golden Anniversaries

Date and Time: Sunday, August 4 2:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

From the author of The New Canadian Curling Club and The Birds and the Bees comes a new play about love and laughs in the golden years. For as long as they have been married, Glen and Sandy Golden have been celebrating their wedding anniversary by coming to the same cottage on the lake for an annual weekend of quiet romance. And this year marks a major milestone: 50 years of wedded bliss. Well...mostly bliss...er...there was that one time...oh, don't get me started! Join the Goldenes for a night of he-said, she-said, remember-whens, what-happens-now, and a long-term love for the ages.

The Farm Show: Then and Now

Date and Time: Sunday, August 4 8:00 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

Arguably the most influential play in Canadian theatre, The Farm Show was originally produced in a barn just fifteen minutes outside of Blyth, and was directly responsible for the founding of the Festival. This gentle adaptation brings you the original in its glory, and shines a light on its singular legacy in our community. Come see the show that inspired the very dream of the Blyth Festival.

Onion Skins & Peach Fuzz: The Farmerettes

Date and Time: Wednesday, August 14 8:00 pm - 10:30 pm

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

Inspired by the book by Bonnie Sitter & Shirleyan English, Onion Skins and Peach Fuzz: Memories of the Ontario Farmerettes; this nostalgic play dramatizes the incredible stories of Canada's Farmerettes; young women all over the country who left the big cities to work as farm labourers on Canadian farms as part of the war effort during WW2. Many of these young women learned a lot more than how to dig potatoes, pull carrots, and muck a stall; they learned essential truths about who they were, who they wanted to be, and what true and lasting friendships looked like. A play about coming of age as young women in a time of change.

Inspired by the book by Bonnie Sitter & Shirleyan English, Onion Skins and Peach Fuzz: Memories of the Ontario Farmerettes; this nostalgic play dramatizes the incredible stories of Canada's Farmerettes; young women all over the country who left the big cities to work as farm labourers on Canadian farms as part of the war effort during WW2. Many of these young women learned a lot more than how to dig potatoes, pull carrots, and muck a stall; they learned essential truths about who they were, who they wanted to be, and what true and lasting friendships looked like. A play about coming of age as young women in a time of change.

Resort to Murder

Date and Time: Thursday, August 22 2:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Address: 431 Queen St. Blyth

A laugh-a-minute murder mystery. When Brett and Viv inherit an old family mansion on Lake Huron, they dream of starting a country resort, but the couple have very different visions of what a tourist destination should be. For Viv: a spa, and quiet retreat. For Brett: a murder mystery themed escape room...obviously. Just a few nights before they welcome their first guests, Brett and Viv gather their reluctant staff in the attic for a trial run. When a sudden storm rolls in off the lake, the lights go out, and the doors lock, their light-hearted game suddenly turns into an electrifying night of murderous confessions, twists and turns that will leave you breathless. Enjoy your stay!
